Historic Cauley Square can host your 'perfect affairs'

BY ROBERT HAMILTON

Historic Cauley Square, built in 1903 by pioneer workers of Flagler's Florida East Coast railroad, offers the ideal location, setting and environment for hosting "perfect affairs" as owner-operator Frances Varela calls all special events at her 10-acre theme park village of 27 cottage shops, including two gourmet restaurants.

The world-famous Tea Room at Cauley Square is an extraordinary dining experience that combines fine gourmet dining with an atmosphere of classic elegance originally built as the home of the Odom family.

Stained-glass French windows are framed with hand-sewn laced curtains with matching tablecloths, napkins and doilies. Fine china, crystal and silver services accent the many private dining rooms in antique china cabinets with a playable upright piano and beautiful rare credenzas.

An oversized dining room with pure mahogany dining table seats over 20 for sit-down breakfast, lunch or dinner meetings for large groups.

Adjacent lush tropical gardens abound with blooming flowers, foliage and statue water fountains providing "the perfect setting" for weddings.

"We can truly host 'the perfect affair,' especially for weddings," said Varela, whose staff provides excellent services for all occasions.

"Whether a large wedding for several hundred people or a small, intimate anniversary gathering, our speciality at Cauley Square is to make every minute the most memorable ever in someone's life," she said.

"Many local charity organizations and foundations are choosing Cauley Square as their new location for fundraising events as we offer over 20 shops with antiques and collectibles that make for a wonderful event that includes both dining for a good cause and then shopping, which all women love," Varela said.

Cauley Square also has a new Unisex Spa onsite this season specializing in personal care and grooming.

The newly refurbished Village Chalet, specializing in seafood dining with its own wine and beer bar, hosts happy hours the second Friday of each month showcasing outstanding jazz music from 7 to 10 p.m.

For information, call the Tea Room Restaurant at 305-258-0044, or Village Chalet, 305-258-8900. Cauley Square is located just off S. Dixie Highway (US1) at 224th Street; telephone, 305-238-3543.
