Stated Kofi Annan on the Biennale; "Artists have a special role to play in the struggle for peace. Artists speak not only to people but for people. Art is a weapon against ignorance and hatred and a representative of human conscience. Art opens new doors for learning, understanding and peace among people and nations."

Beginning October 2009 thru January 2010, the famed Fundora Collection and Spiritual Art and Environmental Series will be exhibited at Cauley Square Historic Railroad Village in South Miami Dade, Fla. Built in 1903 by pioneers of the Flagler Railroad, the Village is the last Railroad Village in Florida and one of the most culturally and environmentally historic in the USA.
